All of the tables seemed to be doing a thriving business in the way of sales. Texas was disposing of her fine lace; the seda fountain of Louisian demanded the constant care and watchfulness of several ladies; the lemon and orange trees were being plucked of their fruit at the Solid South and the Tennessee tables.

at the Solid South and the Tennessee tables.

For so great a crowd as was present in the Temple it was a most good-natured and accommodating assemblage, and one quite bent on enjoyment. Everybody was laughing, talking and joking, and overy one was quite ready to make room, for or accommodate some one cise. After the bazar had been opened and several patriotic airs had been played a tableau, "The Spirit or the Confederacy," was presented, under the direction of Mrs. George A. Lyon, by Mrs. Yeamans and Professor Frank Cosby.

When the curtain fell, business started up briskly again. The selling, the promenading, the laughing and talking went on till 11 o'clock, when everybody was ready to go home and discuss the unparalleled success of the first evening of the bazar.

A Splendid Tribute.

Colonel O'Ferrall spoke briefly, and was at his best. Ho paid a splendid tribute to President Davis, the "martyred to his treatment of being thrown into a prison cell as if he were the vilest of criminals. the cases should be dealt with according to their recommendation. The recom-mendation was that all criminal proceedings should be dismissed and discontinued upon the payment of the civil obligation as above indicated. In accordance with this recommendation, the Attorney-Gen eral directed the United States attorney for Porto Rico to dismiss pending cases and to present no more cases to the grand jury until he was otherwise instructed." Postmaster-General Payne also made a statement substantially to the same of fect.

The Department of Justice to-day received a dispatch from the United States attorney at San Juan, asking for further instructions, to which the department has sent the following reply.
"Your duty is to obey my instructions to dismiss pending smuggling cases and present no new cases until otherwise directed. Considerations of moment not confined to Porto Rico or individuals involved, have moved administration, after full investigation and deliberation, to course directed, which will be adhered to, but you will perform your usual functions before the grand jury. The fact that the government may or may not prosecute does not prevent consideration by grand jury."

MANY AND SERIOUS DISCREPANCIES

Mr. Philbin Will Ask for Investigation Into Metropol-Itan Street R'y Officers.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 15.—Former Dis-

Company was bankrupt and had been robbed of many millions. In his report, Mr. Philbin does not make such charges, He characterizes the statement as merely an expression of opinion on Emory's part, and said that nothing had been found by him to justify it. In the course of the investigation," said Mr. Philbin, "we found many and serious discrepancies that call for an explanation. This discrepancies are not of such a character that they could arise from a fushion, and loft situated on this side difference of opinion."

EIGHT ARRESTS MADE IN BARREL MURDER

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 15.—Eight Italians, whom the police assert are members of the Mafin, and of a counterfeiling gang, were arrested to hight by detectives of the Central office staff in connection with the murder of the man whose unidentified body was found crowded into a barrel yesterday morning at Eleventh Street near Avenue D. Inspector McClusky said that for months he had been working in conjunction with the United States Secret Service men in keeping the members of this gang under the strictest surveillance. Three of the secret service men declare that on Monday night last they saw the murdered man, in company with three of the prisoners, in a butcher shop in Stanton Street.

Detective Schmittburger said to-night that he has information which makes it almost certain that the man was deceyed here from out of town, with the hope of being gotten out of the way, lest he should betray certain secrets.

From the confession of Rhodes and the testimony of others at the trial, it is charged that there was a conspiracy formed to do wholesale burning and robbing, and it appears that there was more or less fealousy in regard to Mrs. Maltester. On the stand she said that C. E. Edmondson, whose store and house were burned, had told her that she was "the sweetest girl in Middletown."

The case will be given to the jury tomorrow, after the lawyers have argued the case. R. T. Barton is assisting Commonwealth's Attorney R. E. Byrd, and the prisoner is represented by Holmes Boyd, Jr., and Harry R. Kern.
